

DAVID ROSEN

Songwriter, singer, producer and multi-instrumentalist David Rosen is a 40+ year veteran of the stage and studio. A touring member of the Elvin Bishop Band as well as Peter Tork's international tours, he has been featured on recordings with Grammy-winner Steve Seskin, legends Tom Lehrer, Tom Paxton, David Rea, Sarah Bailey and many others. David has also shared the stage with Boz Scaggs, Buddy Guy, Maria Muldaur, Taj Mahal, Joan Jett, Robert Lockwood Jr, Greg Kihn and Marty Balin.

David's debut album Ordinary Miracles features Joe Vitale, drummer for The Eagles, Joe Walsh, CSN&Y, John Lennon and veteran of over 50 Gold & Platinum albums—as well as a duet with Americana icon Anne E DeChant.

and music writer for the Sonoma County Gazette

His solo show features a rich and diverse collection of original songs in styles ranging from rocking guitar and piano, to old-school folk and tender ballads—and all stops in between. A skilled and compelling songwriter, his songs explore our dreams for a better world, and our personal journeys along the way.

“David is very special to us. He cares so deeply about everything that is important in our lives, and this really shines through in his songs. His music speaks about real stuff in ways that few performers are doing—and he is just so entertaining and exciting to watch! He brings a purity and honesty that is really powerful and captivating. He's the Real Deal.”

~Tina Marchetti; Executive Director, Occidental Center for the Arts

“David is a seasoned pro with amazing guitar and piano chops. He also plays a mean saxophone. His songs are heartfelt and appealing—very honest and powerful—delivered with unique skill and style. He has a great rapport with audiences, he's just a real crowd pleaser who is clearly at home on a stage of any size.”
